I. WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR PROCESSING YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

Batopin (Belgian ATM Optimisation Initiative) is responsible for the processing of your personal data. Batopin is a public limited liability company ("naamloze vennootschap") organised and existing under the laws of Belgium, with registered office at boulevard Saint-Lazare 10, B-1210 Saint-Josse-ten-Noode, registered with the Crossroads Bank for Enterprises under number 0744.908.035 ("Batopin" or "we").

II. WHICH DATA DO WE PROCESS?

Batopin processes personal data about you in four ways:

- In the cases where you provide us with your personal data yourself, for example if you contact us by email, via scanning of the QR code located near the payment terminals, via our telephone helpdesk that is referred to on the Batopin website, at the payment terminal, if you register for the Batopin newsletter, if you leave your details on a contact form, or if you apply for a job at Batopin. In this case, it mainly concerns personal data such as name, address, telephone number, email address, and any other data that you provide us (content of communication or curriculum vitae).
- In the cases where you use Batopin's ATMs and where Batopin processes personal data to be able to correctly carry out your transaction on the ATMs. This processing concerns data such as your bank card number, your account number, details about the date, time, location and amount of your transaction, based on your bank card number, without us identifying you personally. More detailed information about the processing of your personal data when using the Batopin ATMs can be found at the end of this document.
- We also process certain data via cookies on our website, such as the type of browser you use, the operating system you use, your IP address, the number of page visits, whether you are a unique visitor, etc. Certain information that we collect from you via cookies allows us to identify you as a natural person or can be linked to you, such as your IP address. These data therefore qualify as personal data to which this Privacy Policy applies. More information about these cookies can be found in the cookie policy. Certain non-directly identifying data, such as your browser type, are also processed by us via cookies when you visit our website.

- By means of images from cameras aimed at the payment terminals. These images serve to safeguard your safety as a user, but also Batopin's property. You are informed of the presence of cameras by the pictograms attached to the ATMs, with reference to the contact details for questions or comments regarding the processing of the camera images. The camera images are kept for only a limited time. More information about the processing of the camera images can be found on the last page of this Privacy Notice.

III. WHY DO WE PROCESS YOUR DATA?

A. To keep you informed of our services and activities and for direct marketing purposes

We process your personal data when you wish to be kept informed of our activities, by subscribing to our newsletter. We use these data to inform you about matters that might be important to you or that might interest you.

For this we can process data such as your title, name, position, company name, email address and preferred language.

Depending on the case, Batopin processes these data based on your consent or on the legitimate interest of Batopin to keep its clientele informed of its activities and services. You are free to choose to provide us with your personal data for this purpose, and you may withdraw your consent at any time (see question IX).

B. To answer your questions/respond to your complaints

If you contact us by email, to which reference is made on the website, by scanning the QR code located near the payment terminals where you can then fill in a form to share your feedback or register a complaint, ask a question or register a complaint by telephone via the helpdesk, we will process your personal data in order to answer that question.

For this, we can process data such as your title, name, email address, telephone number, preferred language, your correspondence with Batopin and all other personal data that you provide to us that are relevant to answering your question.

Batopin processes these data on the basis of Batopin's legitimate interest in answering the questions that are put to us.

C. For the technical and functional management of our website, keeping statistics and saving search preferences

We process personal data obtained through cookies for the technical and functional management of our website, to ensure that our website is easy to use, to collect statistics (e.g. to measure the number of visitors to the website and to determine the most visited pages) and to save your search preferences. Using your data, we can check how our website is used and we can improve its content and layout. These data also allow us to adequately secure our website.

To this end, we can process data such as your IP address, the pages you visit, the browser you are using, your language preference, your location, and the time and duration of your visit.

The processing of these data is based on your consent (via our cookie banner) or on Batopin's legitimate interest in offering a properly functioning and secure website and pages with content relevant to you.

For more information about Batopin's use of cookies, see our Cookie Policy.

D. To analyse your offer

If you make an offer to us via the contact form available on the Batopin website to use a building for the installation of an ATM, we will process your personal data in order to analyse your offer.

For this we can process data such as your title, name, address, email address, telephone number, preferred language, your correspondence with Batopin and all other personal data that you provide to us that are relevant to answering your question.

Batopin processes these data based on your consent. You are free to choose to provide us with your personal data for this purpose, and you may withdraw your consent at any time (see question IX).

E. To offer our services

When using our ATMs and services, the processing of personal data is necessary to be able to correctly handle your transactions. The details of the data that are processed per service can be found in the appendix to this Privacy Notice.

It mainly concerns your bank card number, your account number, the date, time and location of the transaction with your bank card, as well as the amount of your transaction.

Batopin processes these data on the basis of an agreement that you have entered into with Batopin.

F. To ensure your safety

When you use our ATMs, we process camera images from our surveillance cameras. When you use our ATMs, we process data such as camera images processed by surveillance cameras. The processing of these personal data is based on our legitimate interest in protecting our assets against unauthorised access and/or in preventing, establishing or detecting possible crimes against persons or property. Batopin complies with its obligations under the Belgian Camera Act of 21 March 2007. Thus, the surveillance cameras have been reported to the police, a pictogram has been attached at all entrances, and we have created a register of image processing activities. For more information, feel free to contact us using the contact details stated in Part IX.

G. As part of the selection and recruitment procedure

In the context of the selection and recruitment procedure, Batopin processes personal data of the candidate.

This information is necessary to assess your eligibility for the position you are applying for.

This concerns information that the applicant provides during telephone conversations, interviews and email exchanges such as the curriculum vitae including contact details (name, telephone number, email address) and place of residence of the applicant and any added photo. Possibly also relevant: the education, courses followed, internships and work experience of the applicant.

In principle, no sensitive information is requested and processed. In some cases, a declaration of good conduct and morals may be requested. This has its context in the fit and proper standards because for some positions, an approval is required by the National Bank of Belgium, which can request this declaration.

In addition, we also conduct research to determine whether the candidate has sufficient integrity, taking into account the risks associated with the tasks and functions that must be performed.

In this context, we conduct research on data that are publicly available, such as:

- Information that the candidate has made public on, for example, a website, social media
- Data processed by the Crossroads Bank for Enterprises
- Information in the press.

When you apply through your LinkedIn profile, you agree that the data from your LinkedIn profile will be processed and displayed on the application screen. This also gives you the option to change the displayed data.

Batopin processes these data because the processing is

- Necessary for the fulfilment of the legal obligation;
- Necessary for conclusion of the agreement.

H. Electronic identity card

Banks are obliged to use all possible means to prevent money laundering and terrorist financing. In this context, banks can request a confirmation or update of your personal data. Batopin makes its ATMs available to the banks with which it has concluded an agreement in order to comply with their legal obligations. In concrete terms, this means that if you use a Batopin ATM, you may be asked to have your electronic identity card read in. Batopin does not read and store the information that is read from the card and forwarded to the banks.

Batopin acts here as a data processor on behalf of the banks that use the Batopin infrastructure to request these personal data.

Batopin processes these data on the basis of a legal obligation that the financial institution has (money laundering legislation, including the Belgian Act of 18 September 2017 and the 4th Anti-Money Laundering Directive, EU Directive 2015/849).

IV. WHO HAS ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

On the one hand, Batopin processes these data itself, in the context of carrying out its activities.

On the other hand, Batopin calls on third parties to perform certain (processing) activities:

- IT service providers who provide technical support;
- Lawyers, insurers and external advisers: in certain cases we may transfer your personal data (including your email correspondence) to lawyers, insurers and external advisers if this is necessary to give us advice or to defend our rights;
- Supervisory authorities: in certain cases, we may transfer your personal data to the police, judicial or other authorities if we believe that we are obliged to do so under applicable laws or regulations, or on the basis of another lawful request or order;

- Possible transferees: in the event that our company or part of its activities is taken over by a third party, your data will be transferred to the transferee;
- Third parties that process the transactions on the payment terminals, ensure the security of the payment terminals and access to the payment terminals;
- Third parties that organise the mailing campaigns and host the website.

Batopin concludes a processing agreement with the parties that have access to personal data for the performance of their services.
